A fair sized crowd witnessed the tugof-war contests last night and were rewarded by the longest pull which has so far taken place. The Lumber Yard team and Longshoremen took the cleats first and after 18 minutes' pulling neither had gained any appreciable advantage. Twenty-four minutes saw the Lumbermen with the gain of a foot and then their opponents weakened rapidly and losing a foot at a time succumbed at the end of 31 minutes

The second pull was between the Pacific Hardwares and the Kani Ke Aus. The former got the bridge at the start and after four minutes' pulling were three feet to the good. This was because their opponents' anchor man missed his footing and was pulled over several cleats before he could recover

The Lumbermen pulled evenly, and well and the Pacific Hardwares showed improved form. The Longshoremen were handicapped by two men who did not pull an ounce.

Tomorrow night the All Americans pull the Longshoremen and the Portuguese the Public Works team. The Pacific Hardwares now head the list, having won two pulls.
